

Abraham Garcia Santana

September 8, 1916 - May 22, 2015

Abraham Garcia Santana, born in Cabo Rojo, Puerto Rico, on September 8, 1916, died on May 22, 2015. He is survived by his wife of 70 years, Eva Baca Santana; Joe Santana his son and his wife, Gloria; Joanna Santana Midyette, and her husband Monty; five grandchildren: Jennifer Santana Cerutti, her husband Charles, Julia Santana Saites, her husband Greg, Jolene Santana Dow, her husband Eric, Jason Midyette, and Jesse Midyette; five great-grandchildren; Cameron Cerutti, Casey Cerutti, Courtney Cerutti, Xavier Dow, and Tobias Dow.

He was preceded in death by his parents, five sisters, and five brothers. Abraham served his country during WWII in the US Army. After living and working in the sugar cane fields in Cabo Rojo he moved to New York City where he was drafted (1941) and honorably discharged in 1945. He met his wife, Eva, in Los Angeles after which they moved to NY and after 12 years there moved to Albuquerque his new home and Eva's birth place. He retired from the Corp of Engineers (Sandia Base) at the age of 67.

He enjoyed life and lived it to the fullest. He never met a stranger. The family would like to extend a special "Thank You" to the caregivers at Alliance and the employees of Bank of America (Carlisle and Candelaria) who were always kind to him during his daily visits going "to the bank".

Pallbearers will be his grandsons, Jason, Jesse, and his great-grandsons, Cameron, Casey, Xavier, and Tobias. Honorary Pallbearer will be his great-granddaughter, Courtney Cerutti. Funeral service will be at Sunset Memorial Park, Tuesday, May 26, 2015, at 2:00 p.m.
