“ I will always remember my Aunt Alfides smile. She was always happy when she had visitors and had a strong faith in God. My Grandma, Uncle Justin and Aunt Alfides home was always the location where everyone in the family would come to visit on weekends. Family visitors from out of town would always be welcome to stay there and that is where everyone from the family in Albuquerque would come to visit with them. It was always a very welcoming, warm and loving place where family would come to catch up with other family members and with my Grandma, Uncle Justin and Aunt Alfides. My Aunt Alfides and Uncle Justin were always there for Grandma and Alfides made the most incredible home made bread in the world. Thanks for helping to make your home such an incredible place to be. God Bless you always Aunty, May God welcome you into Heaven with a warm loving embrace and I know your reunion with your parents and brothers had to one filled with extreme love and joy. I Love you aunty and will miss you very much!

Your Nephew,

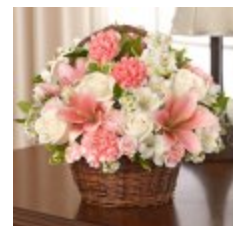

Michael Sedillo

“ Dear Sedillo Family, it saddens us deeply to hear of Alfides' death. She was such a quiet and sweet lady. My husband & I used to go to the house on Arno & distribute holy communion to Mr. Diego Sedillo & Alfides on Sundays. We enjoyed visiting with them until the time of Mr. Sedillo's death. Please know that you will be in our prayers during this difficult time. She lived a long life & is now with Our Lord. Sincerely, Gilbert & Tina Martinez
