“ It's taken me a while, Tia, to write this. It's been hard. You were the last sibling. My daddy always referred to you as "my baby sister". Memories - so many beautiful memories. You never raised your voice, Tia, and you had the patience of a saint! How did you do that? I'll always remember your kindness and your beautiful smile. Thank you for loving me, Tia. It is a gift I will carry in my heart the rest of my life. You are now with my Tio Serafin and so many others that love you. Rejoice in the kingdom of heaven for you have earned it. Love, Albert & Joanna Montoya and family

“ To my loving grandmother, thank you for spoiling me and loving and caring about me always. Althou I only got to see you a handful of times a year, you were always on my mind. I love you and I will miss you but I know you are in a better place.

“ My depest condolences to the Families, our prayers are with you all and May God Bless you. Jennifer and I had the opportunity with visiting my Auntie in May of this year when we went to Albuquerque for a visit and decided to visit with my Nino Cecil and Nina Frances and had a conversation with all of them. My Auntie recognized us both and asked for our Son Martin. I still remember when my Auntie and uncle went for their daily walks inside the Winrock mall in the mid eighties, there was never a time we didn't stop and have conversations with both of them while they rested a bit. They are both greatly missed but will be never forgotten...

“ My memories of my Auntie Andrellita are not really specific - except for something to do with a spider and that is a foggy little memory. I do remember her voice, her smile and seeing her and my Grandma together was so cool because they were so much alike and I loved my Grandma crazy so Auntie Andrellita was really special to me. She was such a part of that sense of family and belonging that I was so lucky to have in my life. I got to see her a while back and she remembered me and said my name. A little thing to some but to me, it was such a gift! She was one of those strong Montoya women! God Bless you Tia!
