“ Mrs. Histia, Lynn (Pauline), Norm, Andrea, Marlene, Cheryl, Rosalee, Myron, and families,

Please know that your husband/Dad and you all are in our thoughts, hearts, and prayers at this time and always every day. A candle will be lit in memory of your Dad this weekend in our church, Sacred Heart in Manassas, VA and in the National Cathedral and the Basilica of Washington D.C. Masses will also be said for him. We wish we could be there with you in person but know that we are in spirit and mind. We feel priveleged to have gotten to know your Dad. I will always remember his wonderful smile, his gentle/geniune manner, and his soft chuckles in conversation. He reminded me so much of my late grandfather because of his stories, his love of family, and his beautiful vegetable garden. I treasure my time spent with him as he guided me, Laura, (and on another occasion my husband too) through his village of Acoma. I also recall our time spent with him at the August Santa Ana festival and him warning us of the dry heat of New Mexico - always thoughtful and kind to us and others. We know that we will see him again in the next world where all beautiful spirits and our family members reside forever.

Love and hugs, (+) Blessings to you all -
