

Ann Wegman

November 5, 1935 - August 21, 2015

Ann Wegman, 79, passed away Friday, August 21, 2015 at Presbyterian Hospital in Albuquerque, NM, after a long battle with respiratory ailments. Ann was born November 5, 1935, in Warroad, MN, to Levi and Marie Ganyo. She married Ken Wegman on June 13, 1964, in Warroad, MN.

Ann enjoyed working as a welfare case worker for the State of New Mexico. The Wegmans lived in San Jose, CA, Pine Island, MN, Dodge Center, MN, and Socorro, NM, before retiring to Albuquerque, NM. Ann was known for her caring nature and numerous volunteer projects, especially with the churches she belonged to. Ann was also a big fan of Lobo basketball.

She is survived by her husband, Ken, of Albuquerque; her children, Susan Wegman of Rochester, MN and Elizabeth Langworthy of Pine Island, MN, and grandchildren, Sophia, Noelle, and Daniel Langworthy of Pine Island, MN. She is also survived by her brothers, Dwaine Ganyo of San Antonio, TX, Roger (Pat) Ganyo of Oak Park Heights, MN and David (Mary) Ganyo of Nevis, MN, and her sister, Joy Ganyo, of Northfield, MN. She also leaves many cherished nieces, nephews, and cousins. She is preceded in death by her sister, Dawna Reynolds.

“ I was lucky enough to meet Ann and Ken just a few weeks ago on the River Boat, the American Queen. We were at the same table at Dinner. What a gracious, fun, beautiful lady. I enjoyed meeting both Ann and Ken. My thoughts and prayers go out to Ken and his family. Blessings to you.

“ Dear Ken,

We were saddened to hear that Ann has left this life only to gain eternal life with Jesus. We are praying that the memories of your years together will give you strength and joy as you journey through your grief to a single life.

Grace and peace to you. Morrie and Vicki Bakker

“ I just read of Ann's death. I remember her with joy and fondness. Her 'get it done' attitude was much appreciated. We had lovely conversations. I treasure the time we had together. Priscilla Brower

“ I only met Ann for the first time the week before last. She was warm, gracious, quick witted and had a wonderful sense of humor. I'll never forget how charming she was at the Berne pizza concert. She was delighted to hear the Simon and Garfunkel songs and marched right up to the stage to tell that musician how good she thought he was. She shocked me too when she said she knew who Melissa Etheridge is and her knowledge of music in general. She was such a fun spirit to be around. I got to escort her back to her seat later in the evening, and she asked if I was sent to watch to make sure she got back okay. "No", I said. But she offered me her arm and allowed me to guide her back through the crowd. Ann was a trusting soul to allow this relative stranger to guide her, but together we chatted along the way and I'll never forget that evening with her. I'll miss you, sweet Ann.
