“ It was always nice when we would go out and we would all get together Annette, Carmen. Margie and Antonio and us. Al would really enjoy talking to him. Everytime we would go to a concert or a dance and at our wedding you would see Antonio dancing I don't think he ever missed a song. I'm sure he went dancing all the way to the Pearly Gates. Our condolences to Margie and his family. We are here for you Margie.
