“ Dear Angie,

I am so very happy that I attended your Dad's Rosary last evening. It was heart warming to see all of the neighbors stand up and talk about what a wonderful man and neighbor he was. You know Jeff thought the same. I was privileged to see him every Sunday after Jeff left for Portland in late February. He always had Jeff's mail ready for me and we always had a little chat. I know you have many memories and stories and I hope to hear them when I come over to see you every Sunday to get Jeff's mail. Take care.

“ Dear Angie,

I'm so sorry to hear of your dad's passing. As a little girl I would always see him working in his front yard and trimming the bushes just so. He would always wave and smile. He had a long life and I pray that your memories will be a comfort in your time of sorrow.

Sincerely,

Deborah Santistevan (Hoch)
