“ Hi Mom,
It's been a year to the minute since you left us. I remember having my hand on your beautiful heart as you drew your last breath and God took you from us. I miss you every day and the pain is almost unbearable at times. I know that you are with your Heaven family now and that we will see you again but somedays that just isn't enough. We want you here with us. I see your smile in your children and hear your laughter in my children. We all got your wonderful sence of humor and for that I am eternally grateful. Life goes on without you here for us to see but we carry you in our hearts every minute of every day. I love you my wonderful mother. As time goes by I find myself only remembering the good times we had with you and not the pain of the last few years watching you suffer. I am a better Mother and a better person because of you. You are in my heart always!
I love you Mom!

“ Mom,
I can't believe that it has been 6 months since you left us. I still miss you every day. Thanksgiving, Christmas, New Year and just last week what would have been your 75th Birthday have all come on gone since that July morning when you went to be an Angel in Heaven. We made it through them all with a lot of love and support from each other but it hurt not having you there just the same. Meg, Shane and I sang you Happy Birthday last week and I gave you a bath which you argued about in death just like you did in life. I know sometimes Adam thinks I am crazy talking to an Urn but I know you can hear me and you would appreciate the humor. I love you more than any daughter has ever loved a mother. Thank you for bringing my daughter home to her family. She was lost for a time but her Grandma found her and brought her back to us. So many wonderful things I have, I have because of you. I miss you Mom, more than you will ever know and I love, love, love you!

“ There are no words that can truly express the loss of such a wonderful person. A great Wife, Mother, Sister and Grandmother that gave all to her family. Audrey was always doing things to keep her family together and keep them growing together. Her lifelong connections with her siblings through good times and bad are a testament to her character and her desire to keep everyone close. My heart and condolences go out to the family. I hope that you can all find peace and happiness. Honor her memory by loving each other the way she loved you and be strong for each other. We will miss you, I will miss you.
Love you aunt Audrey.

“ Mom,
I was so very blessed to have you for my Mom. We are all here with Dad taking care of him and of each other. Everything in the house reminds me of you. I had you for 41 years and I can't yet imagine even one without you. The tears are heavy now but I know that you are in a very special place with people who love you. I pray that you had a safe trip. If you think about it please ask God if you can call and let the phone ring once to let me know that you got there ok just like you had me do all the way to the end. You are beautiful and I miss your sweet smile and laugh. All my love always,
Baby "B"

“ Dear Traci, the loss of a parent leaves a void that can never be filled - but in this time of sadness and loss, remember to treasure all the happy times and warm memories of your mother, because over time, they will help to ease the pain that you must be feeling. While I never had the pleasure of meeting her, your mother's picture looks like the warm, passionate and lively lady I have come to know in her daughter...the apple did not fall far from the family tree!
You and your family are in my thoughts and prayers.
Love and very best wishes, Piers.

“ Audrey had been my friend for 66 years. She had been my playmate, my confidant, my buddy. Audrey left the world so much better off than she found it. The legacy she leaves is her four wonderful children and grandchildren. She was blessed to have the best of all husbands in Lee. I'll miss you, precious friend, but you will always live in my heart. Love and blessings to all of you, Aunt Allena

“ Dearest Traci, it is with great sadness that we learned the news of your mom's passing this weekend. While we never got a chance to meet her, one look at her picture shows where you got your awesome smile and great sense of humor. She obviously did a great job raising you. While this is a very difficult time for you, time will heal your sadness and you'll remember the good times you had with your mom. You are in our prayers and thoughts. While we can't be there in person, we'll be there in spirit. Don't hesitate to call if you need anything. Love, Bob, Rose and Sam.

“ To the family of Audrey Pieart,
My family and I are thinking of you during this time of sorrow.
Audrey is in a good place looking down on you all, her loved ones.

I came across this saying that I wanted to share.

*"Yesterday is a memory, tomorrow is a mystery and today is a gift, which is why it is called the present. What the caterpillar perceives is the end; to the butterfly is just the beginning.
Everything that has a beginning has an ending. Make your peace with that and all will be well."*
