“ I will always remember how kind Bob and Carolyn were to my family when my husband worked for Rich Ford. My eldest daughter, Ericka, was a flower girl in Larry's wedding. Bob and Carolyn truly cared for the Walker family back in the day.

“ Bob had a big heart for everyone and never met a stranger. We had so many fun and memorable times with Bob. Some of these include dancing, navy years, poems that he had written, eating pineapple-coconut ice cream, watching old movies and watching Lobo games. He will remain in our heart forever. Our thoughts and prayers are with his family and his many friends. Lovingly, Jane and Jess Tidmore
