“ Carole knew how to celebrate life. Now her spirit is on its next journey, I have no doubt she will be sitting in the palm of our Father. She would visit me every year in NJ. I looked forward to the time we spent getting to know one another. I met Carole about 40 years ago and only wished we had met earlier. My deepest sympathy to the Loggins family. Travel well my sister.

“ Carole and I met forty years ago and had many wonderful experiences. One of my regrets was that it was not sooner my consolation is that we had time to "catch -up". She was a wonderful person, and I am grateful for those years and memories shared with her and her wonderful family- good bye sister!
