“ My thoughts and prayers are with you all. Carole loved her family and was so proud of each and everyone of you! I had the privilege of cleaning Carole's teeth for years. We always had so much fun- she would make me laugh and yet she was such an inspiration in that she loved life and lived it to the fullest. She had an amazing life and I am so lucky to have known her. May God comfort you all.

carole was one of my heroes. she gave me inspiration to carry on when i lost my husband two years ago and courage to once again travel while i still had my health. she was one of my favorite bridge buddies too.

much love to amy and all of carole's family.

sincerely, bette stewart

I have such good memories of playing bridge in Carole's home with Ann H. and Jane A. -- and the all too short time we were P.E.O. sisters in the same chapter. Many prayers and much love surrounds all Carole's family at this time.

Sincerely, Judith Todd

Carole was a wonderful friend to my mother, Betty Johnston and my aunt, Mary Culbertson. the ladies had regular bridge games at our house. Always very quiet as the cards were being played and then lots of laughter at the end of the hand. I'd see her when I visited Aunt Mary at Los Altos Towers. I know she and Mary were big pals too. Your mom was always one of my favorites and I'm very sorry for your loss. I bet they're all sitting around the card table right now!
