

Caroline Herren

September 23, 1918 - August 2, 2013

“The Apron Lady” passed away on August 2, 2013 after a long battle with alzheimers. Mom was born on September 23, 1918 in Falls River, MA. She was preceded in death by her husband Albert Herren and daughter Carole Herren. She developed a decade’s long friendship with her customers at arts and crafts sales at various catholic churches and senior centers. She was an excellent craftsman, including sewing aprons, crocheting doilies and knitting afghans. She made and donated hundreds of aprons each year this is why she was called “The Apron Lady.” She did many hundreds of hours of volunteer work at the V.A. Hospital. She is survived by her son Albert Herren and wife Mary Beth and grandson William Herren; son William Herren and wife Laura and grandson Albert Herren and wife Debbie; granddaughter Carole Lynn Brown and husband Ken; great-granddaughters Alyscia, Tiffany and Summer. A Visitation will be held on Thursday, August 8, 2013 from 6:00 pm to 8:00 pm at FRENCH - University. Mass will be celebrated on Friday, August 9, 2013 at 9:00 am at Our Lady of Guadalupe Catholic Church, 1860 Griegos Road NW. Burial will follow at Sunset Memorial Park, 924 Menaul Blvd. NE. “ I have so many fond memories of Mrs. Herren. She was the mother of my very best friend from 5th grade until Carole's passing. My best memory is her pierogies that she made every Christmas. I tried my best to get her to make them more often, but to no avail. I don't have an apron, but I do have several dish towels that she also made for the craft shows. My deepest and sincere sympathy to Al, Bill, and the rest of the family. Mrs. Herren was a very kind, generous, and sweet lady. Shannon (Varntz) Laury
