

Carrie Butler

October 3, 1919 - March 31, 2015

Carrie Butler, 95, beloved wife, sister, mother and grandmother, passed away at home on March 31, 2015. Carrie will be remembered by many for her endless love, generosity and support of her family and friends. She came to New Mexico in 1926 and loved the blue skies and mountains. She and her husband, Marlin, were married for 47 years and were involved in the Albuquerque theater business for decades.

She is preceded in death by her husband, Marlin, and son, Gary. She is survived by her children, Ben and Mary. She was much loved by her grandchildren, Lisa, Ted, Jennifer, Michael, Ann Marie, Raul and her nine great-grandchildren.

A Memorial Service will be held Friday, April 3, 2015 at 1:00 p.m. at FRENCH – University, followed by a private interment at Sunset Memorial Gardens.

Memorial gifts in honor of Carrie may be made to McCurdy Ministries, 261 S. McCurdy Road, Espanola, NM 87532.

“ Ben and Mary, You know how many memories I have of your Mom over the years, so it is with sadness that I read her obit in this morning's paper. Yet, I know how much she loved The Lord and so with joy I celebrate her going home to see Her Lord and also once again she is with your Dad and Gary. Much Love to the two of you, and God's Blessings.
