“ Happy Birthday Baby Girl. Not a day goes by that we don't think of you and wish you were here. The girls went to your grave site to celebrate your day. I'm sure they felt your presence, as I always do when I miss you. You are always near to our hearts. We all work hard to console your parents, as they miss you terribly. Everything we do, we think of you. From taking home left overs to finding clothes you would love. We are all still tryin to cope with you being gone, and I know I wish things could have been different. Rest, and know we love you.

“ Cassandra was one of my best friends in recovery. I knew her from her time out in Arizona and she absolutely captivated my heart. For the last year of her life we stayed close and shared in one another's struggles. I'll miss you always my bud buds. The pain is over now and you can rest with the Angels. I love you cassandra
