“ Dear Verdie and Trina, Sorry to hear about your loss--I added a memory to the Monitor sight which you should check as there are others there that are not here. I didn't find out right away, I know how hard it is to lose a spouse. Kay was such a wonderful person and we all loved her very much. Hope to catch up with you before too long. Marilee Pierotti

“ Dear Verdie, Gary, Trina, and Guy; Pat and I and the entire Pierotti family are sorry for your great loss. We are very lucky to have known Kay, myself from childhood through beyond middle age. Every time our family's got together Kay brought peace, happiness, and grace to the gathering. It is a rare person that can lift the spirits of a child or an entire family just by saying hello and flashing her beautiful smile. I am fortunate to have wonderful role models for parents and doubly graced having known Kay and the beautiful way she positively influenced all of our lives through her unwavering integrity. (Very simply Verdie, when you were together with Kay we all felt the Love)

With our heartfelt sympathy,

Mike, Pat, and Jason
