“Charlie was a great man with a stiff handshake, he would always go out of his way for anyone. The world is a better place for having him in it He will be missed. His family will be in our thoughts and prayers. Tim Kuzior & Nila Moore

“It only seems like yesterday when Charlie, Short Stuff, Chuck, Bill and I would be playing golf. It seems like the Sun was shining on us and it was a beautiful day. We would talk about tax from both sides of the fence and laugh about things only tax people would understand. For years I assured Short Stuff that Charlie and Bill would always out drive him in there better days. That went on for at least ten years. Finely I had to confess that I had been lying for years and they never could hit the ball as far as I said they could, what a great laugh we all had. Charlie was a very good person in all respects. I appreciated knowing him and his family for years. I did not make the service as Chuck was to pick me up and we would go together. I waited until the last minute to call Chuck and to my surprise he answered the phone. Becky, Craig, Ken, I will miss you and my prayers are with you and your whole family. My absents was an old mans mistake and can not be redone. You have never been out of my prayers since I here about Charlie being in the hospital. Bill and I went to see him one last time. I don,t know if he heard us or not, I hope so as we wanted to comfort him if possible. Sorry I missed the service but I will continue to pray for all of you. Randall Clevenger
