You are all in our thoughts and prayers. I loved Chris he was such a nice kind young man. He was always ready to help me with anything I needed done around our condo when Rich was out if town. I loved to see him with Meadow at the pool or just outside playing together. Yvon and Meadow were his pride and joy he truly loved his girls. Family was very important to Chris. We truly lost a wonderful friend and Neighbor on March 11,2015. Peace be with you Chris.

“ Chris was a wonderful person. He was a cheerful person, much like his father, was never disrespectful to his mother, and was a great brother to Renae. We had many fun times at family gatherings and have many good memories. We'll miss his quick smile and contagious laugh and warm and sincere greetings. We pray for peace and comfort for his family.
