“ We were blessed to have known such an amazing lady. Her thoughts, actions and words were kind, caring and loving. I was not well known in high school but Cindie was always so kind to me when others were cruel. You will be missed by many but your kindness will be carried on by those you have touched.

“ Rest in peace, Cindie! The sorrows of life are gone. You are remembered for your beauty and kind heart, that great smile and beauty. I always admired you. May your family have peace and comfort in this time of sorrow, as they miss you and grieve their loss of their mother, daughter, grandmother, and aunt. Your friends miss you too. We all take comfort in knowing you have moved into a new life and will meet your loved ones again someday

“ As little Girls my sister Julie and I would spend many nights with Aunt Cindy. I specifically remember dressing up and dancing around the house to Annie. I will miss you so much and so saddened that i was not not able to spend more time with you in the last couple years. I love you so much! May you rest in peace Aunt Cindy.

“ Lisa, I feel so sorry and saddened for your loss. My God give you and your family comfort and a peaceful heart knowing that your Mother has gone to be with the Lord. I knew her in high school through P.E. class. She was a sweet girl. I was excited when we became f/b friends, but sadly we had not exchanged messages yet. Cindie, may you RIP.....Linda Wilson Garrett

“ Lisa, I never met your mom but I know and love you. You could not possibly be the wonderful person you are without the influence of equally wonderfully people, your mom being one of them. May you find peace and joy in knowing Who holds her in His arms now. Praying for you and for all your family who loved your mom and is missing her now.
