

Dillon Cearfoss

August 12, 1992 - August 22, 2012

DILLON ZACHARY CEARFOSS KIRSTEN MARIE LANDEAU There is a choir of angels who sing to you and I. If we stop and listen, their voices will be nearer. Within the choir of Angels, Voices sound above them, the voices we hear are Kirsten and Dillon, they are singing to you and I if we stop and listen, we can hear them sing, singing of happiness and peacefulness. And if we open our hearts, we will feel their presence, buzzing around like hummingbirds, or running around like a praying mantis, until we meet again, forever in our minds and hearts. Dillon Zachary Cearfoss and Kirsten Marie Landeau, two beautiful people who were taken from this earth to become angels in heaven. Kirsten and Dillon were loved by many. They are survived by many family and friends. They lived life to the fullest and enjoyed every day. Kirsten enjoyed modeling with Julia here in Albuquerque. Kirsten was beautiful both inside and out. She had the most stunning smile. Jeremy and Jordan, her sons, were her reason to live and the two most handsome men in her life. Kirsten also leaves behind two brothers, Steve and Eddie and Eddie's wife, Martha; her father, Warner Landeau of Hawaii; nieces, Jennifer, Dominique, Alexandra and Samantha; her nephew, Derek as well as many other cousins, loving family members, friends and one little doggie, Maynard. Dillon had a sparkling personality and it showed because he always had a smile on his face; he had a way to make you laugh even if you were having a bad day. His family, friends and music were his life, and we cannot forget little Bark Vader. Dillon and Bark Vader were a match made in Heaven. Dillon was such a pleasure to have around, just to have his hugs. Dillon is survived by his mother, Sherry; father, Eddie; Godmother, Leslie; sisters, Jennifer, Dominique, Alexandra and step-sister, Samantha; his brother, Bobby; cousins, Jeremy, Jordan and Derek, as well as many other loving family members and friends. We will miss their smiles and the sounds of their voices, but we know that they will always be in our hearts. Let's listen to their song they are singing to us, a song of peace and happiness and telling us to REMEMBER EVERYTHING. A Memorial Service will be held for Dillon and Kirsten on Monday, September 17th, 2012 at 1:30 p.m. at The Sheraton Uptown, 2600 Louisiana Blvd. NE, burial will follow at Sunset Memorial Park Cemetery, 924 Menaul Blvd. NE.

“ Dillon, Oh how I miss you so. I owe you so much. I had so much that I wish I could tell you but never got the chance. You meant so much to me. I will never forget you. If it wasn't for you, I would be some girl who would let guys take advantage of her and push her around. You showed me that I don't have to be that girl. You gave me the strength to be better than that. I will always be forever thankful of you for that. I would not no what the meaning of love would be if it wasn't for you. I wish that things would of worked out between us and I wish that we talked more than we did. I know we were still friends, but I wish we would of been closer. I feel so broken. I know you're up their watching over me, all your friends and family and you will be one of the best angles ever! I love you Dillon!! Wait for me at the gate when it's my time Love Nelly (Janel)

“ Dillon -- we remember you from your Aunt Kirsten's wedding. You and your sisters were so cute as part of the wedding party. We haven't had a chance to see you through the years but have heard about you from Kirsten and Eddie. We have enjoyed seeing many of your pictures -- at graduation and the fun you were having with the family at the lake. We are so sorry your earthly life was cut short and we pray you are in a happy peaceful place with your Aunt Kirsten and those who have gone before you. Aunt Carol and Uncle Dick
