“ My best memories of Don are of him performing with Betty for our family and friends. They were always lighthearted. They always looked at each other with eyes that spoke volumes of warmth, trust confidence and love. I can actually picture him singing to the angels and cheering them up.

“ Don was called to be Bishop of the Hermiston 2nd ward many years ago. He stood to the pulpit after being sustained. He said "I've always believed that the best man for the calling of bishop is someone who does not to be the bishop and I'm here to tell you I do not want to be bishop."
