CAMPBELL, DORA LORRAINE "SISSY"

Dora Lorraine "Sissy" Campbell, of Roswell, NM, died on Sunday, February 2, 2014 in Albuquerque, NM at the age of 91. She was born on October 12, 1922 in Englewood, CO to George Arnold Seastone and Dora Helen Seastone. She graduated from Englewood High School in 1940 and attended the University of Denver. In 1942 she married William E. Core, and together they had one child, Andrew B. Core of Albuquerque, NM. Together they traveled as an Air Force family for 33 years. Her husband, Bill, preceded her in death in 1982. Lorraine found happiness again, and married Roy M. Campbell in 1984, increasing the number of family members she loved with his two children; Wallace Campbell of Roswell, NM and Martha Jaramillo of Las Cruces, NM. Her second husband, Roy, preceded her in death in 2002. During WWII and when Bill was away on temporary duty, Lorraine worked as a telephone operator for both Mountain Bell and Montgomery Wards. She was a long term volunteer for the Eastern NM Medical Center Auxiliary Thrift Store in Roswell, NM. She served as a dedicated member of the Episcopal Church's altar guild in each parish she belonged to. She spent 36 years being a summer season resident of Creede, CO. There, she was as a diligent bridge player and bird watcher. She was preceded in death by her parents; as well as both of her husbands; her sister-in-law, Loraine Seaston; her son-in-law, Chris Jaramillo; and her beloved daughter-in-law, Nancy A. Core. Lorraine is survived by her son, Andy; her brother, Don A. Seastone; her cousin raised as a brother, John R. Spangler and his wife, Barbara; her two beloved grandchildren, Jane A. Core Yatzeck of Williamsburg, VA and Susan B. Core of Albuquerque, NM; three great-grandchildren, Sarah, Andrew, and Naomi; and her step family, Wally, Martha, Amanda, Ryan, Tucker, and Lottie. Contrary to her wishes of “just throw me in the river”, there will be two services celebrating her memory. A memorial service will be held at St. Michael and All Angel’s Episcopal Church in Albuquerque, NM on Saturday, May 17, 2014 at 10:00 a.m. There will be a mass held in her memory at St. Augustine’s Episcopal Church in Creede, CO on Sunday, May 18, 2014 at 2:00 p.m. In lieu of flowers, memorial donations may be made in Lorraine’s name to the Nature Conservancy. “ Aunt Lorraine will always hold a special place in my heart. Since I'm also married to an Air Force guy and never lived close to family, I always knew her door was open to us when we made our trips cross country. Loved that we were able to park our RV in her driveway either in New Mexico or Colorado. She is the last of my parents generation and I feel the lost of that connection deeply. I'm a better person for having know her.

Blessing to the family.
Love Marjie

“ I am Jan Adams Cathey, and I lived across the street from Lorraine in Roswell for years as a teenager. We continued to be friends even after I married, and I always thought the world of her. She and my mother, Bobbie Adams Hart, were great friends up until my mother passed away in 2001. We often talked about how Lorraine had such an infectious laugh, and she always had such a sweet spirit and bright smile. She was a breath of fresh air and just a joy to be around. She was gone a lot these last few years, and then moved.....so I lost track of her... but I never forgot her....and never will. She was a precious lady. My heartfelt condolences to Andy and your family. With love....
