

Edith Pederson Greenup

May 30, 1923 - May 25, 2014

Age 90, died May 25, 2014. She was born May 30, 1923 in Plaza, North Dakota. Edith is survived by her children, Sandra Outwater, Reba Griggs-Greenup and husband Frank, Vicki Tweet and husband, Douglas, Scott Greenup and wife, Diane; her grandchildren, Nissa Martinez , Lorin Thomas, Nicholas Tweet and wife, Erica, Bill Tweet, Darell Tweet and Norman Tweet; 6 great grandchildren and many other family and friends. She was preceded in death by her husband, Darell; her parents, Emil and Serina Pederson; her son, Randall and all of her siblings. Edith was a country school teacher as a teenager. She met and married Darell Greenup who served during WW II in the US Army so Edith joined the US Coast Guard serving also during that time. After the war they received their degrees in Education and dedicated their lives to teaching in numerous grade schools where they lived. Mrs. Greenup was a loving wife, mother and grandmother and will be dearly missed. She enjoyed games, especially Scrabble and even joined a club where she made many friends. A Celebration of her Life will be Friday, May 30, 2014, 11:00 a.m. at FRENCH - Lomas.

“ Edith was like a second mother to me, while I lived in New Mexico, teaching. Though I was only there a year, our friendship endured for over forty years. My sympathies to her family.

“ The world has lost an amazing, loving caring person, the likes of which cannot be duplicated. We have all been very blessed to have her in our lives (not even counting the obvious fact that without her, many of us would have no lives). Her strong faith has always been, and will continue to be a strong inspiration for me. I will always love and miss her

“ *Gram,
You were one of the kindest and smartest people I have ever met. We all really looked forward to your visits every summer. It meant the world to us that you connected with us every year even though we lived all the way in Taylor, AK. I have very fond memories of gold panning, playing scrabble in the wannigan, and how warm you kept that place..... I even remember the time that I accidentally locked you in it!
You were an amazing woman and a blessing to have in all of our lives. Thank you for being such a great grandmother to us. You will be sorely, sorely missed.*

“ She meant a lot to us up here in AK. From her, I inherited a love of crispy bacon, word games, and chortling. I have a "Science Experiments You Can Eat" book from the 1970s with her name on it on my bookshelf at school even though I neither teach science nor produce edible food. I have taken my monogrammed Scrabble game with me everywhere I have lived since I was a kid. Miss you, Gram.
