“ We loved our ant Edith and have so many great childhood memories and memories through the years of fun times at her house. Wish so much more time could have been with you all but distance and time always was in our way!!! We wish sooo much we could be there NOW for the funeral but I know you understand (and thank you for that). What a wonderful lady in every way!! I know she's in heaven with our Heavenly Father and no longer sick or in pain and I for one am so thankful for that comforting word. We all love you all - Beckie

“ My sincere condolences to the family. Psalms 34:18 says that Jehovah is near to those that are broken at heart; and those who are crushed in spirit he saves.
