

Eleanor T. Sanchez

October 28, 2014

Eleanor T. Sanchez departed this world on October 28, 2014, following a lengthy illness. She was born, lived and worked in Santa Fe, and spent her final days in Albuquerque with her immediate family. She was preceded in death by her mother, Juanita Sanchez, her father, Arturo Sanchez, her brother, Pete Sanchez, her brother, Jimmy Sanchez, her niece Denise Sanchez and nephew Alan Romero. She is survived by her daughter, Michelle Sanchez; son, Andrew Sanchez, Sr.; daughter-in-law, Donna Sanchez; grandchildren, Andrew Sanchez, Jr., Christopher Viens, Peter Sanchez, Shawn Duran, Alex Duran and Audrey Duran; and great-grandchildren, Andrew Sanchez III, Angelo Sanchez and Madison Barker. She is also survived by her sister, Ida Romero; brother, Tony Sanchez; sisters-in-law, Marie Sanchez, and Donna Sanchez; and brother, Gil Sanchez. She was a beloved aunt to Kathy DeJonghe, Cindy Sanchez-Perraglio, Tony Romero, Roberta Aragon, Stephen Sanchez, Lionel Sanchez, Donald Romero, David Romero, Paula Henderson, Paul Sanchez and Susan McIntyre. In her prime, Eleanor was a force to be reckoned with. She was an amazing woman with a contagious sense of humor who lived her life with gusto and passion, and was never one to shrink from what needed to be said. Eleanor had unlimited capacity of love for her family and friends. Although Eleanor will be missed dearly, the family takes solace in the fact that she will join our already departed family members in a better place, free from the pain her body imposed on her in the end. The Rosary for Eleanor will take place on Friday, November 7, 2014, 7:00 p.m., and a Memorial Service will take place on Saturday, November 8, 2014, 1:00 p.m., both at FRENCH – Wyoming. A reception will follow the Memorial Service on Saturday. In lieu of flowers, please consider a donation in Eleanor's name to F.A.T. Katz (www.fatkatzabq.org) or Watermelon Mountain Ranch (www.wmranch.org).

“ Mother-in-law. The word usually conjures visions of the stereotypical meddling old woman, one not particularly honored in our society. A perfect example is Henry Youngman’s old joke: “Just got back from a pleasure trip, I took my mother-in law to the airport.” Fortunately for me, Eleanor is my mother-in law and I am honored to have been a part of her life. We hit it off from the start. She was my friend, confidant, and mentor and welcomed me and Christopher into the family as if we had always been here. I could talk to her about anything, even if the subject of my discord was her son. We would joke that she and I should just move in together because we got along so well. My only solace in the emptiness she has left in my life is that I know I am a better person for having known her. Eleanor, you are missed.

“ A true lady that was kind at heart and generous with love. She made me feel like I was apart of the family when I needed it the most. Always with a smile and always something witty to say , that is how I will remember her.

“ To the family of Eleanor, I got the privilege to meet & work with Eleanor at CYFD. She taught me a lot of things, but most of all her honesty was the one I admired the most. She was a wonderful women with strength, honesty and pride. I know she is with our Dear Lord, and she will be sending her Angels to watch over her family. I am so sorry for your loss, she was a great women.
