“ *Thanx for the visit it was nice to see your smiling face again...Oh very young
What will you leave us this time
You're only dancing on this earth for a short while
And though your dreams may toss and turn you now
They will vanish away like your daddy's best jeans
Denim Blue fading up to the sky
And though you want him to last forever
You know he never will
(You know he never will)
And the patches make the goodbye harder still*

*Oh very young
What will you leave us this time
There'll never be a better chance to change your mind
And if you want this world to see a better day
Will you carry the words of love with you
Will you ride the great white bird into heaven
And though you want to last forever
You know you never will
(You know you never will)
And the goodbye makes the journey harder still*

*Oh very young
What will you leave us this time
You're only dancing on this earth for a short while
Oh very young
What will you leave us this time.. See you soon... peace out!!!*

“ I read the Bible in its entirety while I was pregnant with you. I knew that GOD was allowing me to me to share one of life's best miracles. Iam very sad that you didn't give yourself a chance to enjoy life's blessings. I know your with GOD and you will always be connected to my heart. I know and you know we can communicate. Everywhere I go and everything I see and do reminds me of something me you and Emma have done together. I LOVE You guys so much. MOM

“ Out of all of Alex's friends, Seo was my favorite. I was always happy to see him. He was always incredibly polite, he treated me with the utmost respect, he was always so grateful for the lunches I made him in the mornings before wrestling practice, he always went out of his way when he saw me at the school to say 'hey mom' and give me a big hug. There were a couple of times he even came over to hang out with Alex and when Alex wasn't home he just hung out for a bit and talked to me. John, I am always here if you need anything. Sending my love.

“ *First impressions are lasting impressions, as was the case with Elisio when I first met him. I had the privlidge of meeting him and was drawn to his sweet and respectful manner and above all his smile. May the family find comfort with the friends and acquaintances who were draawn to Elisio. “ Your son was such a light in our school. I called him The Philosopher all last year, because he seemed to have an insight into life's craziness that many of us don't. I loved reading his writing and his classmates and I loved hearing his calm, simple musings on life and all its wonders. He made a very important impact on me as a teacher, and I will forever think about his sweet smiling face. Lisa Harris
