“ We only had the pleasure of meeting Elsa once, at an MG meeting. She was very sweet and represented to me, very new to MG, a feeling of hope that life could still be enjoyed. We're glad for her good husband and fine family that they have many years of treasured memories to ease them through not having her with them now.

“ Elsa was a very kind woman. We shared the same disease, Myasthenia Gravis. She became my friend over a year ago when I met her at our meetings. She told us great stories and always had a beautiful smile. John and Elsa are important to our group. We love them both. Journey well my dear friend.
