“ We were neighbors on Charleston back in the 60's (right next to you out your side door). What a fine family your Mom and Dad raised. Many fond memories go back to knowing your Mother, she truly was a "Mother" in every sense of the word, one that everyone looked up to and wished they had. You were all blessed with a strong foundation and a family held together by love, brought on by your great parents. Our prayers and condolences go out to each and everyone of you.
