“ Visiting with your Mom and Dad, was always exciting, and a time I knew I had to be on my best behavior. Mom so loved Vangie, all the memories from growing up, the stories of "Uncle" and Aunt Lea. I can still hear them laughing to the point of tears! They had special connection, and friendship. Very sad to hear of her passing. She was a very special Lady.

Some people come into our lives and quickly go. Some people move our souls to dance. They awaken us to new understanding with the passing whisper of their wisdom. Some people make the sky more beautiful to gaze upon. They stay in our lives for awhile, leave footprints on our heart, and we are never the same.

Always a better world with her in it.
Blessings of your love, and memories.
The daughters of George Maxwell and Minerva Sandoval Maxwell.
Kay Underwood, and Leslie Maxwell Burton.

“ On behalf of your Saxton cousins, I extend to you deepest sympathy on the loss of your Mom, our "Aunt" Vangie. She was a great lady and she will be missed by many. She joined our "Sandoval Cousin Reunion" here in 2002 and we appreciated her presence and her beautiful smile. Please know that our thoughts and prayers are with you. May God comfort you and bring you peace.
