“ My Deepest Condolences to all of you.

I'll forever be in debt to Nena for the eloquence and culture that she has shared with Annie and Caroline. I can hear her voice as she would say to them "Bumble Bee Bumble Bee out of the Barn". I too learned some great things from her. One of my favorite things was getting a recycled greeting card from her. Each of them were pretty special. I also really enjoyed chatting with her about old Honky Tonk music and She always had a "new one" for me to listen to.

My thoughts are with you.
