“ I would like to express my deepest condolences to your family. I hope you find comfort from God’s word the bible during this time of grief. For he is near to those broken at heart. Ps 34:17,18 Also, note Jesus’ words of comfort spoken to Martha, who had just lost her brother, at John 11:23-25, “Jesus said to her: “Your brother will rise. Martha said to him: “I know he will rise in the resurrection on the last day.” Jesus said to her: “I am the resurrection and the life. He that exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life.”

“ James and Steven, What a wonderful neighbor and friend your dad (and mom) was to my mom and dad. They were like family and how lucky to have had them so very close for all those years; probably close to 30 or 35 years. I want you to know that my parents loved your parents. After my parents passed, your dad always assured me that he was just right there if I needed him for anything. I felt great comfort knowing that. I will truly miss him and I find great comfort knowing that he is now back with your mom and who knows, maybe he has been able to touch base with my parents too. I bet they had a great reunion. I'm sorry I missed the visitation tonight but didn't find out about it until 8:30 p.m. after it was over. May God bless you and your families during this time of sadness and forever. LaRaine McClure

“ I do regret not getting the opportunity to have met you, I have enjoyed hearing stories of you and seeing pictures of you throughout your life and it is so evident how much you loved your wife, your sons, and your family. If I had met you in person I would have commended you on the fantastic job you did bringing your boys up to know the Lord and to become the awesome men of God that they are today. Makes my heart glad to know you are in heaven with your wife again and that there will be a day that I will get to meet you:) My love and prayers to your family you have left behind who will be missing you Mr. Fermino Ernesto "Fermin" Perea
