“Mike, Lynn, Bill and Steven,
I'll second what Tom said, your Mom's smile and laugh were contagious! My favorite memory is a party my parents had on Arvada Street when we were quite young and your Mom was in the bathroom inside and popped out the screen and was drinking champagne out of her shoe. She was the LIFE of the party!!

I'll never forget the countless hours she spent serving at the hospital and the joy with which she lived.

My condolences on your loss, but so many wonderful memories of my favorite Aunt Flo.

*Love and Peace to you all,
David Zipprich*

“Mike, Lynn, Bill, Steven,

Our love and condolences. You know how very much we loved Aunt Flo, Crazy Red. She was Mom's best friend and an anchor through everything she ever went through. I know for myself and I'm sure for the rest of the family, our gratitude is hers forever for helping moom keep her sanity and eventually find true happiness. I'll never forget the Thansgiving dinners and Christmas mornings we spent together and Flo's laughter, which never ceased. Seriously, I can still hear her. We love you all.
