

Francis Iorio Jr.

May 5, 1938 - March 21, 2014

Iorio-Francis "Frank" Jr., eldest son of Francis and Elizabeth Iorio, born May 5, 1938, in Waterbury, CT, passed away in his loving home in Albuquerque, NM on March 21, 2014. Frank was married twice, first to Janice Cotton, now Carbajal and had two children, Karen E. Reed and Robert F. Iorio. He married Marta E. Iorio in 1977 and had two more children, Brian F. Iorio and Cherie M. Iorio-McAbee. He is also survived by six grandchildren, Michele Lee, Sarah N. Reed, Lucia Noll-Upshaw, Clara Dayne Noll-Upshaw, Janeen C. Iorio, and Emaline Z. Iorio; two siblings, Richard Iorio and Perina "Perri" Milligan. Frank graduated from the University of Connecticut and Officer Candidate School in 1962. He served in the Navy from 1962 until 1965. After his military service he pursued a career in sales and Real Estate. His Italian heritage influenced his passion for cooking (and eating), and he shared this love with his family. He will be fondly remembered for his love of the outdoors, daily constitutionals, reading, classical music, his joking nature, and his signature saying "Heck Yeah!" A funeral service will be held Thursday, March 27, at 11:00 a.m. at FRENCH –Westside Location. Please visit our online guestbook for Francis at www.FrenchFunerals.com

All of us in North Storington are with you in thought. Francis was a wonderful big brother. I miss him and will deeply miss our conversations. I can still remember how hard it was when he moved to NM...so far away. No matter the distance, he was still my big brother who I could always talk to. I am so very happy that he and I had such special time together this past summer, and that he could be here for our big family picnic. I have so many warm memories from my earliest childhood on. Rest in peace, big brother....give Mom and Pop a big hug for me. You remain in my thoughts and in my prayers. Love to you and to your whole family. Fran, you are always in my heart.
