“ We had the opportunity to know Gerry through St. Francis Church. From the time we arrived in 2012, we recognized how instrumental she was in the success of the church attracting new members. She not only energetically welcomed us into her home but encouraged us to participate in the church activities. She was such a joy to know; we will miss her.

“ Gerry, I will miss you. You were such a lovely, kind, and thoughtful person. When I brought my little great grand son you called him your boy friend. I didn't bring him often but when I did you always came over and asked how you boyfriend was. One time when she came over and asked how her boyfriend was she left and Benito looked up at me and said, Nana, she's old for me. Gerry you were very young and always will be. My heart goes out to the Seyler family for not having such a wonderful woman around. Some day you will meet her again.

“Gerry, You made me feel so welcome when I first came to St. Francis. You invited me to your house and dug out a glass of wine for me even though you didn't drink any. We talked about our hopes and dreams and you did nothing but encourage me. You were so laugh-y and upbeat whenever I saw you. You always seemed to remember what was going on with me. How could you be so nice? I will see you again when Christ returns, Gerry. Our goodbye is only for now. Lin Wong

Gerry: You always had a knack for finding a kind word for me. I haven't forgotten your kind advice. The world is a little poorer today but heaven is a little richer.

Gerry-Gerry, my dear friend. I will miss your smile, kindness, sense of humor and will cherish the memory of all the wonderful times we had together. Our friendship goes back almost 40 years which included both pain and pleasure. You were a bright, courageous woman who never gave up, was always optimistic and who also knew how to have fun. You took advantage of all the good things life offered. You were the perfect example of a fine person in every sense of that word. My condolences to your family. Terre Hopkins
