“Dear Patti, Craig and Todd, Glenna was such a dear family friend, as was Marshall also, to my parents Leonard and Virginia Winters. The four of them spent many fun evenings having dinner and playing cards. Through the years Glenna was a great friend to my Mom and I will always remember Glenna as such a giving and kind person. I am happy to have known her and your dad. In harmony, Mary Winters Morse

I have such fond memories of our trips to Albuquerque with my parents when we were young. Glenna was always so sweet and made us feel so loved when we stayed in her home. (And wow could she cook!!)
