“ Through Laurel (Cauwels) Bryant, when looking for a dog sitter, she suggested calling Glenna. That turned out to be one of the best things I did!! Glenna became not just a trusted dog/home sitter to Roy and than Lily, but a "great" friend to Don and I. Glenna was there for us when I fractured my ankle very seriously, and sat with me for days on end. With her sweet manor, she kept me mentally strong and know she prayed for me.

We shared many meals together and Glenna even came to California once to visit and sit for our Lily when we moved back. A Cute story, Glenna loved big cars and when I asked her what she would like us to leave for her to drive, she said the Chrysler Aspen SUV, which was huge.

Glenna was a very devout Christian and was so proud of the day when the Cauwels dedicated a church in her name. Glenna loved her family and special friends and know she was loved too. We all take something away with having met this wonderful lady.

Friendship is Like Sunshine to the Heart. Glenna always brightened up the day!!

Our Sympathy to her family and special friends, but knowing where Glenna is, we are all left with a good feeling.

“ Glenna was a cherished friend. I remember her love of family, especially the pure joy of her grandchildren and her special loves, her great-grandchildren. She loved being a special part of the Cauwel's family and she shared many stories of her special grandchildren who she loved like her own. She loved animals and she cared for my beloved dog, Austin in his senior years. She called him "cutie patootie" and he loved her! I admired Glenna's work ethic. She was so proud of the jobs that she had during her professional career. She was independent and never wanted for anything that she had not earned. I will always remember her with Austin on her lap reading her Bible in my home.

My sincere sympathy to Glenna's family and friends. She was loved by many.
