“ Harvey was and always will be a part of the Moran clan. The many memories will live forever. Although far away in Albuquerque, Bill and I always considered Ramona and Harv the very best of friends. Harvey was always there for Bill; he never let him down. I like to believe the two of them are looking for their pot of gold in the sky along with Bill Roberts and Bob Rautert. Harvey was one very special person. With my condolences, Sharon Moran

“ For Bruce Bell, son of Harvey A Bell. Bruce, your dad was a giant of a man and he was always so very nice to me. I have very fond memories of him throughout my entire life. My favorites are those of singing around the campfire at Willow Beach. I have tried to find you via the computer but to no avail. Please email me, I'd like to keep in touch now and again. You were lucky to have such wonderful parents. My deepest sympathy! Julie Moran 909-435-5741

“ Though I had not seen Harvey for quite a few years, my son Alex and I have wonderful memories of Harvey and Ramona, honorary grandparents at school functions, drinks on the barstools, one heck of a New Year's celebration with Debbie and Bruce, and lots of grandfatherly advice. Alex is now 24 years old and carries great memories in his heart. Thanks for caring about my family, Harvey. You made a difference in our lives.

“ Its a failure of nature that a personality and sense-of-humor cannot be willed for use of generations to come. If you knew Harvey you know what I mean. i.e., A common greeting could be `you kids` or to chide or scold it might be `now, now children` as though he didn't know that I was only one yr. his junior. This was always with a smile or grin-----and no one takes the `OKIE` out of a genuine Harvey grin.....His attitude, principles, values and good nature all contributed to his charm.. The love and joys of animals, the out-of-doors, art, the A20 attack aircraft memories, and a shared affliction to accumulate dimes (not pennies) all were a plus as parallel items for us.....BUT above all else, once you knew him, his mere presence was a comfort.... Thank you, Harvey, for allowing all of us to know you... The Wests.....
