“ Finally I found a place where to write my condolences on your loss and to thank you Imogene for all you did for my father. Now you are back together again. I will always remember you with great affection and I will miss you so much. I have many fond memories of times spent together at your house with Dad, your garden that I loved so much and your holiday in Rome with all of us and my mother too. All of us love you. Ciao

“ Please accept my sincere condolences on your loss.
I met Imogene at the bingo hall and developed a great friendship with her over the past fifteen years or so. We shared our histories, ups and downs, medical problems, likes and dislikes, problems and happiness, families and friends. I could talk to her like my mom and really enjoyed our weekly meetings at the bingo hall and, also, during our shopping adventures at Costco and Sam's.
She'll always will be a very special and wonderful lady to me. I'll really miss her. She was a good person.
With my very best regards,
Hugh Formhals
