

Jack Earl Whitten

January 15, 1930 - October 6, 2014

WHITTEN, JACK EARL

Jack went to be with the Lord and rest next to his wife, Stella Adeline, who preceded him after 60 years of marriage. He was a lifelong resident of Albuquerque, a husband, father, grandfather and great-grandfather. Jack served in the Army during the Korean War, was a member of the Jaycees and enjoyed working with the Golden Gloves. One of his hobbies was camping and fishing with his family. He retired from PNM after 40 years. He leaves behind sons, Ted and wife, Pamela, Garry and wife, Emily, Robert and wife, Rocio; a loving daughter, Deborah, and her husband, Elmer; grandchildren, Michael, Robert, Clay, Jacque', Julia, Juan and 14 great-grandchildren. Burial and Celebration of Life were held on October 8, 2014.
