“ I met Jeanne one night in 1976. She had taken the seat my buddy had vacated without my knowledge. When I returned to the table I noticed her straight away and said "Hey, you're not Eddie!"

I didn't know we'd be together for over 37 years with 3 kids and 1 granddaughter to show for our efforts.

I love you and miss you so much!

Your mate, Michael

“ I can't believe that I am even writing on Jeanne's tribute wall. We had just talked to and texted each other on the Friday before her death. We were both looking forward to my visit in November.

We met when her middle son, Shawn, and my oldest daughter, Karen, were in kindergarten. She was the kind of friend you could tell anything to and never be judged. We lived across Candelaria from each other for many years--and even as adults with kids, we had "sleepovers" and would watch movies and eat potato chips and green chile dip all night! Jeanne and I walked in the evenings together for exercise, but secretly we called our outings our "free counseling sessions"--it was so great to have such a friend, who shared herself and time. Lots of laughter and crazy fun with Jeanne will always be some of my most cherished memories.

To Mike, Kevin, Shawn, Jodi, Katie, Clancy and Dea: know she loved you all with her whole heart and always wanted the best for each of you! You are all in my thoughts and prayers and will stay in my heart for ever.

“ How do you say goodbye to a best friend. I met Jeanne in Middle School. We both had the same name and spelling. That alone bonded us as best friends for fifty years. Your mom differentiated us as Jeanne One and Jeanne Two. Larry and I will continue to visit your home and stay close to Mike, Kevin, Shawn and Clancy whom I knew from infancy. I will miss you terribly.

Much love from Jeanne Two and Larry Adams

I will always remember the friendship of the two Jeanne's. I can remember as a young child their long conversations in their made up language that I finally began to understand after much listening. I didn't really get to know Jeanne One very well, but she was my sister's best friend and that made her my friend too. She was a beautiful woman, and I send my love and deepest sympathy to Mike, Kevin, Shawn, Clancy and her dear grandbaby. I send my sympathy also to my sister, who is grieving the loss of her forever friend. I love you Jeanne Two.

*“ I will never forget my Aunt Jeanne and her infectious laugh and sense of humor. I always enjoyed listening to her and my mom reminisce about the mischief they got into in high school. I love you Auntie now and forever. Big hug to Uncle Mike and "The Boys"

“ Jeanne and I go way, way back. We met many years ago in high school. Jeanne, Linda and I were like the three musketeers. We were inseparable through high school and college. A few years after college, our lives and careers lead us down different paths. However, over the past 45+ years we have all managed to stay in touch.

Jeanne loved her family dearly. She considered Michael to be her soul mate and she adored her sons. She was especially excited with the birth of her first grandchild, Katy. She looked forward to the times she got to spend with Katy.

Jeanne had a passion for animals, antiques, and jewelry. She especially loved cameos. Over the past few years Jeanne and I reunited, and spent many hours at lunch laughing over all the mischief we got into when we were youngsters.

Jeanne was a strong woman who battled cancer. I admired her positive attitude and will to live. She was a dear, dear friend, and will truly be missed. I love you, Jeanne, and I'll see you on the other side.
