

Joe Lopez Jr.

December 14, 1944 - February 17, 2015

Joe Lopez, Jr., 70, a lifelong resident of Albuquerque, completed his earthly journey on February 17, 2015. Joe worked extremely hard all of his life and was an excellent provider for his family. He woke up early and was willing and able to work at any time of the day or night to ensure he met his commitments – he never asked anyone for anything. He was a practical man who spoke his mind wherever and whenever he saw fit and lived life on his own terms. He succeeded in his efforts to ensure that his children also had the same hard-work ethic, and he took great pride in seeing their accomplishments. He is survived by his children, Karen Alvarez, and husband, Rick, and Danny Lopez; several grandchildren and great-grandchildren; the mother of his children, Zoe Gil; his sisters and brothers, Pauline Romero, Eutemio Lopez, Mary Ann Romero, Linda Serna, Manuel Lopez, Cecilia Manzanares and Elizabeth Lopez, and numerous nieces and nephews. A Memorial will be held on Thursday, February 26, 2015 at 11:00 a.m. at the Chester T. French Memorial Mausoleum chapel at Sunset Memorial Park, 924 Menaul Blvd. NE, 87107, in Albuquerque. Inurnment will take place immediately following the service.

“ My deepest condolences to Joe's family. My husband and I were friends of Joe and Zoe when Joe and my husband Jr. worked together at Associated Grocers back in the day. We lost Jr. in 2004. Just got the news recently about Joes passing. Patsy Lucero and family.

“ My Dad would have been touched to see the number of people who attended the service; family and friends from all times periods of his 70 years with us. I saw friends from every decade of his life there; childhood friends he grew up with, friends from the 70s, friends from all of his years as a truck driver, and friends he made recently who would go with him to the flee market. He was so fun to be around. His family and old friends will miss Lalo, his trucker friends will miss Joe Loco and his grandchildren will miss their Grandpa Joe. I will miss my Daddy and my biggest fan. He thought everything I did was amazing. He is truly responsible for giving me the confidence to do just about anything. He taught me to face my fears and that life begins when you live outside your comfort level. I truly believe he lived his life that way all the way up until the end. I painfully miss you Daddy.

“ Lalo, I'm glad I met you and got to spend a lot of time this last summer helping Arturo at your house. You always treated me great and I appreciate all you did for us. I'm going to miss you calling me "Veronica" (although I still can't figure out how you got Veronica out of OraNell Lol).
RIP until we meet again, OraNell
