

John Struckle

June 7, 1916 - January 15, 2015

John Struckle, age 98, a resident of Albuquerque since 1951, passed away January 15, 2015. He is survived by his children, Jimmylea Sawyer and husband Mike, Nicky McBurney and husband John all of Albuquerque, NM; Grandchildren Shelby West and husband James of Albuquerque, Carrie Lagomarsino of Ruidoso, NM, Carla Duke and husband Ken of Ruidoso, NM.; ten great grandchildren and two brothers Frank Struckle of Cresco, PA and Edward Struckle of Roswell, NM.

He was preceded in death by his wife of 69 years Edna; son Edward; parents John and Jennie Struckle; sister Jennie Sega; and brother Joseph Struckle all of New York.

He retired from the telephone company after 30 years of service and was a Veteran of World War II. His absolute favorite past time was stream fishing; he was an avid golfer and bowler. John was a loving and dedicated family man who was always helping others.

John was a resident of Beehive homes on San Pedro and Corona in Albuquerque at the time of his death. We would like to extend our heartfelt thanks to them for the tender loving care that he received.

Services will be held Wednesday January 21, 2015, 11:00 a.m., at FRENCH – Wyoming with Rev. Thomas D. Noesen officiating. Interment will follow at Sunset Memorial Park. In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to the charity of your choice.

“ Mr Struckle will be in my heart. I was one of his caregivers from Footprints. He was very headstrong but a very sensitive man. He loved his family & sizzle. He kept telling me "Im tired and ready to go home. He missed Edna. So now he is home and with HIS Edna. He will greatly be missed here on earth by all who knew him but He is happy now and looking down saying "OH YEA " WITH HIS ARMS CROSSED.
My thoughts are with you Jimmy, Mike, Nicki & John. With Love for your dad Kris Guest
