“ I am on a tour of Puye Cliffs during your memorial service today, a place you have been many times. I know you were not big on religion but I am writing this on the steps of a kiva. It was always a pleasure to have you driving our tours..... truly a people person and so easy going. Your pet name for me "young lady"....."are we ready young lady?" "OK young lady". Or did you call everyone young lady? You will be missed, not forgotten.

“ *Do not ask me to remember.
Don't try to make me understand.
Let me rest and know you're with me.
Kiss my cheek and hold my hand'
I am confused beyond your concept.
I am sad and sick and lost.
All I know is that I need you.
To be with me at all costs.
Do not lose your patience with me.
Do not scold or cuss or cry.
I can't help the way I am acting.
Can't be different 'though I try.
Just remember that I need you.
That the best of my is gone.
Please don't fail to stand beside me.
LOVE me 'till my life is done.*

*To everyone who had the honor of meeting this delightful man you know how infectious his smile was. To my darling aunt Phyllis and Debbie, Karen. and Doug. plus your children and grandchildren. I hold you all deep in my heart. I love you all!!

“ I am sorry to hear of your loss. The death of a loved one is one of the most devastating experiences a human can face. At times, the loss can seem unbearable. The Bible promises; "God is near to the brokenhearted." It also says: "Throw your burden on God and he will sustain you." (Psalms 34;18 and 55:22) I hope this message will help you cope with the loss of your loved one.

“ I was visiting my parents a few years ago and looked out of the window to see this huge bus drive up! John had bussed some kids over for a sporting event and had some time to wait before the return trip. It was really nice to visit with him and you could tell that he really enjoyed his job. Just a small memory to share while I send much love to you Aunt Phyllis and to all your family.

“ John used to crack me up. I used to tell him I was born in Pennsylvania so of course my nickname was always "Pennsylvania". Or "hey lady". He always reminded me of my father both geminis and the same enthusiasm for life people and the ones that were always ready to go anywhere. He will greatly be missed. Tell my dad papa john that Pennsylvania said hello and to show you around. He will be waiting for you ready to take you for a ride.
