“ Unfortunately, today's snowy weather prevents me from attending John's memorial service. So, I wanted to share my dearest and earliest memory of John. It was when I was a little girl, nearly 70 years ago! My dear cousin came to my rescue when a frog unexpectedly startled me by jumping into my path. John was caring, humble and kind, and a respected and loved member of our family. Rest in peace, John. You will be remembered and missed very much. Karen Reese-Chavez.
