“Jojo you were more than my best friend, you were like a brother to me. You were the only person I could call at 5 in the morning that would always answer. I would tell you everything and you were always there to support me. You took care of me through thick and thin and you always made sure that I was ok. You were the most kind hearted person that I've ever met. The world truly lost an amazing person yesterday. The sky even cried with us all night and day because it too knows what a precious life form it lost. They say that we're meant to loose the people we love because how else would we know how much we loved them? I love you Jojo. I always will. You hold a special place in my heart and nothing could ever change that. We've talked about death many times, in fact, just the other day, and we agreed that people should try to celebrate the good things about who you were instead of focusing on things that could have been. I promise that I'll try to celebrate the beautiful life you had instead of being depressed about the life you could of had. You live on in our hearts. No amount of words could ever explain the emptiness in my soul, but time heals all and I know that you wouldn't want me to be upset. I know that if you could talk to me one last time we would laugh about the irony. I can hear your voice and exactly what you would say. I always want to believe that it is really you. I hope this isn't goodbye, but until next time.

“I did not know Joseph, but Christina was my Mother's nurse in her last days. She was so caring and compassionate with my Mother. May she and all her family be shown the same caring and compassion she showed my Mother. My heart hurts for all of you. Remember all the joys he brought to your family and others.

Hi, I'm Christina's sister Valerie, Jo Jo is actually the third loss in this family, my son Loenzo died on December 27, 2014, then our brother Robert passed on February 21, 2015. It's been tough for everyone especially us three mommas. How do we or anyone comprehend all this. Totally unbelievable. Thanks from Christina's older sister Valerie and Jo Jo's aunty.

“*To the family of Joseph,
You were all so very blessed to have this wonderful young man in your lives, even if it was for such a short time. I loved going to Walgreen's to see him standing there with his sweet smile and gentle manner. Sometimes we would talk and joke around if it wasn't busy. He was so kind and sweet! His co-workers loved working with him because he was always so nice and easy to be around. Joseph was an amazing guy, friendly and caring, soft-spoken but always having a strong impact. Once you met him, you'd never forget him. Every time Joseph checked me out at the register, I made a point of giving him a "9", and now, I think of him in Heaven, walking beside God and even God is giving him a "9" for being such an outstanding young man. I pray for all of you that the sadness and emptiness in your heart will be filled with warm and loving memories of times you shared with Joseph.*
