“ Our fondest memory of Our Sister was her sense of humor her funny jokes & the way she scolded us as if we were children. She always reminded us that she was the oldest and we had to respect her. We enjoyed the family reunions with her along with the holidays.. She will forever remain in our hearts. From her three Sisters,
Alice, Doris & Victoria

“ Hello,

This is Yvonne Maestas one of many nieces of Aunt Josie. The memory I have of her is when she and Uncle Fred lived in Belen, we would go visit her and at the time we did not know she had geese. We got out of the car and OMG, her geese ran after me, and I was bitten screaming and yelling, and no one heard not even Aunt Josie. So when we would go to visit again, we would call and let her know to corral to tie up her killer guards her geese, so I would not get attacked. I remember she always wore her beautiful jewelry where ever she went and her bright red lipstick, which made her look beautiful.

*Will, miss you Aunt Josie, Yvonne
GOD BLESS*
