

Joyce Marie Harrison

March 7, 1957 - April 3, 2014

Joyce Marie Harrison was born on May 7, 1957, the daughter of William and Gloria (Madaghielle) Harrison. She grew up in New York, but lived the past 30 years in New Mexico. She was a resident with ARCA in Albuquerque at the South Valley home and a JOY to all who knew her. Joyce is survived by her five siblings living in Texas, New York and New Mexico: William (Billy) Robert Harrison, John Anthony Harrison, Michael Joseph Harrison, Patricia Ann Estatico-Harrison and Patrick James Harrison. We will always remember how Joyce comforted those who were sick saying, "I'll pray for you". When one of her friends with a disability passed away she would tell us, "There's no handicaps in Heaven ~ You get a new body!" We know that Joyce has her new body now and she's with Jesus in Heaven! Joyce will be greatly missed by all of her family and her friends at ARCA and in Albuquerque.

“ We are so sorry to hear of your loss, our deep condolences go out to the family. At times like this we wonder about the meaning of life, and if there is hope to see our dead loved ones again right here on earth. The bible promises that this is the case. I too lost someone close to me in death. The thing that helped the most was this hope from the bible out lined in this article. <http://www.jw.org/en/publications/magazines/g200809/death-is-it-the-end/>
Please read and I hope it gives you the comfort it did for me.
Sincerely,
Taleisha

“ I always remember Joyce wanting to sing her songs from church and sometimes she got the words a little mixed up, but that's ok!
My favorite to sing with her was "This is the Day that the Lord has made". Her face would light up with such JOY. Now she can sing all day every day!
I'm sad we had to lose her on this earth, but glad she's in a far better place and that we will see her again!!

“ Joyce touched a number of lives in her short life here on earth....In her 28 years with ARCA she continued to enhance the lives of everyone around her! Joyce had her trials on this earth but was always resilient in her faith in God! Your ARCA family will always remember what you have taught us! Enjoy your new body!

I was blessed to share my sisters final days on this earth with her. I was blessed that she feel asleep in a nurses & my arms as she was being bathed & prepare to meet her maker Jesus Christ (not that we really made the real difference for her clean soul in her bath).

The real difference of her clean soul:

Joyce loved her God and she proclaimed his name daily no matter how she felt that day. She would tell you, "Jesus loves you!" ...then she would say, "...pray for me...pray for me now I don't want to be handicap no more!" She believed if you would that she would be healed. And yes she was correct, on April 3rd 2014 she received her new body.

Funny...as she passed and she laid in her beautiful white dress a beautiful smile appeared on her face. I believe that smile was her going to heaven and witnessing her new body she was dancing around saying, "My God you kept your promise to me, Look at my new body i'm no longer handicap!"

Joyce was given the perfect name; she was full of Joy. She loved her songs that she believed was written about her like "This is the day that the Lord has made, I will rejoice and be glad in it..." and "Joy to the world" these are a few she knew them all!

I will miss her, but as I made my final promise to her...I will see her again in Heaven when its my turn to go home...Will you do the same? Make Christ your savior today.
