

Judith Bartholomew

July 27, 1926 - March 16, 2014

BARTHOLOMEW, Judith

Age 87, a resident of New Mexico since 1988, passed away on Sunday, March 16, 2014. She is survived by her children, Stephen A. Bartholomew and wife, SueEllen of Bosque Farms and Carolyn Bartholomew of Washington, DC; grandchildren, Devon and Jenelle Bartholomew of Bosque Farms; and many loving friends. Mrs. Bartholomew was preceded in death by her husband, Edward Alan Bartholomew; and sons, Colin and Brian Bartholomew. After retiring from teaching on the Navajo Reservation, Judith was an active volunteer in the cancer survivor community. She also volunteered with KNME. For nine years she served as a Consumer Liaison for the UNM IRB. She was an active member of the Daughters of the British Empire. The Bartholomews had an amazing life, immigrating to the United States, from England, in 1950 with $13 in their pockets. She lived the American Dream and finished her career working in education based in Many Farms, AZ. Cremation has taken place and her life will be celebrated on Tuesday, March 25, 2014, at 10:00 a.m. at FRENCH - University. Should friends desire, contributions may be made in her name to Cancer Support Now, PO Box 37338, Albuquerque, NM 87109 or New Mexico PBS, 1130 University Blvd. NE, Albuquerque, NM 87102.
