“ Mr. Kassicieh was an intelligent, refined, and caring man. He was a great friend of our family and we always enjoyed his company when he came to visit. He was a proud Palestinian who served his country well both as a national guardsman and as an athlete. He was also a proud employee of Royal Jordanian Airlines and was always willing to assist his friends with their travel plans. I will remember his dignity, his graceful demeanor, and his gentle soul. Our thoughts go out to his beautiful family. He will be missed by all who were fortunate enough to know him.
