“ Leo was a WWII veteran and served his country in the Navy. He and Henry liked to share their Navy stories but Leo was actually on the USS Princeton when it was sunk by the enemy during the Battle of Leyte Gulf in the South Pacific. He spent several hours in the water with patches of burning fuel all around him before he and 1,360 of his shipmates were rescued. The other 108 men were lost. We did not meet Leo until later in his life but we always enjoyed visiting with him and enjoying the salsa he made from his garden. We will miss you Leo.
