

Lou M. Gonzales

July 25, 2014

Beloved wife, mother, grandmother, great-grandmother and animal lover, passed away peacefully on July 25, 2014 at her home at age 85. She was born Guadalupe Maria Marquez in Santa Rita, NM on October 27, 1928. She is preceded in death by her husband Joseph C. Gonzales. She is survived by her four children Ray Gonzales and wife Linda of El Paso, TX, Joni Pastor and husband Doug, Joe Gonzales, and Patricia Brennan and husband Robert; eleven grandchildren, eighteen great grandchildren; two great-great-grandchildren; and two brothers. She will be greatly missed by many. We have so many great memories of her dancing with her music. Her legacy of prayer, strength, integrity and love of her family will always live on through all of us. Rosary will be recited on Thursday, July 31, 2014 at 9:30 a.m. at FRENCH – Lomas. Prayer Service will follow. She will be buried at Santa Fe National Cemetery.

“ Grandma accepted all of us with open arms and lots of love. I feel so fortunate that my children were able to meet my Grandma and see what a wonderful person she was. When we were young I remember her root beer floats and chocolates. When we got older it was $20 bills so we could buy ourselves some lunch. We love you Grandma! You are greatly missed!

“ Grandma was the glue that held our family together. She was such a strong woman of prayer...a morning wouldn't pass without her morning prayers for each individual family member, friends and special prayer requests-and sge remembered every one. She would bless us as we would leave her house. Grandma, words cant express how much we will miss you. We know you are rejoicing in heaven and wait for the day we'll see you again. Love you Phil, Theresa and Ben “ Lou will be greatly miss! I still can taste her homemade tortillas she made when I was a kid. She touched many hearts during her life and mine was one.

“ Another Angel has been called home. You will always be forever in our hearts. We came across this poem and wanted to post in honor of Grandma.

*"A light from our family is gone
A voice we loved was stilled
A place is vacant in the home
Which can never be filled*

*We have to mourn the loss of one
We would have loved to keep
But God who surely loved her best
Has finally made her sleep*

*After a lifetime of her love and joy
And music to fill our ears
God leaves these wondrous memories
To help us through our tears"*

*God bless and we love you grandma.... Troy, John, April, John,
Amy, Crystal, Rick & Audrey.*
